IMMIGRATION SERVICE

OFFICE OF Inspector in Charge

PORT OF Yarmouth, N. S.

September 1, 1904.

J.J.P.
No. 55.

Commissioner of Immigration,
Montreal, Canada.

Sir:-

I beg to point out alien Hans Eriksen, entered No. 11 on miscellaneous manifest sheet handed you herewith, arrived in Halifax December 18, 1903, by Allen Line steamer "Parisian". The head tax was collected by the Dominion Atlantic Railway Company before I discovered the line by which this alien arrived in Canada. It may be the head tax should properly be collected through your office in Montreal rather than here. However, as payment had been made, and the alien in question desired to depart by steamer sailing directly following his examination, I did not deem it wise to delay his departure.

Respectfully,

John L. Hogan
